

HARRISON COUNTY ENERGY EXPRESS

Energy Express is a free 6-week summer reading program for children entering 1st - 6th grades.

How will the Energy Express program operate this summer:

To ensure the safety of children, staff and volunteers, our Energy Express program will take place according to current COVID-19 guidelines. More information will be available closer to program dates TBA.

Is Energy Express going to be like school?

Whether or not 2022 Energy Express is in traditional classroom setting, your child will receive free take-home books with activities to complete. Additional information will be available closer to program dates TBA.

Will meals be provided?

We will continue to work with state and community partners to provide meals.

How do I enroll my child in Energy Express?

Applications will be made available closer to the program dates TBA.

SPACES ARE LIMITED!

Questions?

For additional information visit energyexpress.wvu.edu.